

EADPH Research Workshop (Prague, 30/31 October and 1 November 2014)

Theme: New Developments in Oral Epidemiology - How will they change your surveys?

The workshop will cover the key points in the proposals in changing methodology of oral health surveys and in the interpretation of gathered data

Key points - Design of studies - Assessment of dental erosion and dentinal hypersensitivity - Dental caries (ICDAS) - Periodontal diseases (newly proposed CPI)

Key note lecturers - Ken Eaton (UCL, UK), George Tsakos (UCL, UK), Colwyn Jones (NHS, Scotland), Paula Vassallo (Faculty of Dental Surgery, Univ. of Malta), Speaker GABA, Zdenek Broukal (1st Fac. of Med., Prague)

Programme

Thursday, 30 October 2014

Arrival, reception

Friday, 31 October 2014

8.30 Welcome and introductions Prof. Kenneth A. Eaton

8.45 Cross sectional methodologies and identification of risk factors for oral disease
Dr George Tsakos

Small working groups, feedback, discussions

12.00 Erosion and Dentinal Hypersensitivity Speaker from Colgate/GABA

13.00 Lunch

13.45 New methods for caries assessment (ICDAS, WHO 5th Edition of Basic Methods)

Recent survey in Malta Dr Paula Vassallo

Recent Surveys in Scotland Dr Colwyn Jones

Recent Surveys in Czech Republic Prof. Zdenek Broukal

Small working groups, feedback, discussions

17.00 Dinner at local restaurant

Saturday, 1 November 2014

9.00 New methods from assessment of the periodontium (NHANES and WHO 5th Edition of Basic Methods) Prof. Kenneth A. Eaton

Small working groups, feed-back, discussions, future plans

12.45 Lunch

13.30 End of workshop